* Tribe - The tribal associations are in accordance with the traditional view, which is in-line with Chassidut and Ha-Ari'zal. The order is according to the setup of the camps of the Tribes of Israel and their accordant land grants in the Land of Israel. It is not according to the order of the stones of the Breasplate of the High Priest (which is subject of much conjecture) and the order of Blessing as seen in Genesis, which are speculative views followed by some Kabbalistic learning schools and mystical schools of occult (Quabala). In the order shown above the portion of Yosef Avinu (Joseph our Father) is assigned to Ephraim (who also received the blessing assigned to the firstborn of Yaakov, which was lifted from Ruvein) and Menasheh in place of Levi (whose position was at the center of the camp in priestly service, and to whom land was not given) who represents the mazal (fortune), of all of Israel (as a nation of Kings and Priests).

* Mother - Yitzach Avinu (Isaac our Father), had two wives and two concubines with whom he had children. His adopted sons, Ephraim and Menasheh, are descendants of Rachel through their father Yosef.
